all. The world that they found themselves in played with their senses allowing them to taste happiness and hear green music rustling through the trees. Before they could explore fully the map let out a melodic hum, focussing them on their task. They followed the path ahead until they reached two landmarks clearly marked on the map.

Express

Praying together: how can you involve the children actively in prayer?

Creative prayer – turn, turn, turn

(Note for leaders: If your group is not used to praying out loud, it might be helpful if you have a couple of examples to offer to the group that should be respected.)

Tell the group that they are going to be given the opportunity to pray for people, places or situations where they want change to happen. Praying is a choice that they can make and praying can bring about change too. Their prayer can be a sentence, or just a word. When they have offered a prayer to the group, everyone should turn around to face a different direction to demonstrate that change has happened and that there is a new way of looking at things.

Spoken prayer

Ever-present God, who knows our hearts and minds
Be with us when we have choices to make.
Our choices can make ourselves, or others,

Jesus our friend,

if us today

as we share together
